靠想像的捷兔週報

9/13颱風天, 早上還在猶豫下五午要不要去汐止山跑步, 吃完飯後, 顧不得家人的咒罵和唉求聲中, 看雨勢稍停, 找一個空檔就溜出門了。

一路上風雨不大, 可是還是有點耽心, 萬一水太大, 地上有落石要如何處理, 還好抵達集合地點. 今日比往常人數少很多, 大部份是年繳中毒已深的兔子. 3點開始跑步才約60多人. 這時風雨達到最

高等級, 心想好不容易排除萬難來到這, 怎麼可能打退堂鼓. 二話不說就跟著兔子往外衝, 可想而知全身沒一處是乾的. 這時心中突然想起英文有一句話形容雨下的超級大, "Rain dogs and cats"外國人將傾盆大雨形容為落下很多貓狗一般. 還好兔子英明, 意思意思在馬路繞了一下, 約

10幾分鐘, 一千人就回來了, 到了
down down 時, 已走了一大半人, 雖
然跑了10幾分鐘, 但是還是覺得很神
勇, 回去又可吹噓一番, bash完後6點
左右大家就散場了. 晚上看電視轉到
華視, 好像有看到記者, 在汐止目擊
有人跑步(雨太大看不清臉孔), 記者
還問颱風天還運動, 如果是兔友希望
這週出來亮相. 香港有一個特別的
hash團體, 只有在颱風天掛8號風球

時才跑10公里, 一年跑不到幾次, 他們自稱"Typhoon runner"... ON ON..

THE BEST RUN OF THE YEAR????????????

Typhoon Sinlaku (Goddess) lashed Taiwan for four days from Friday, September 12 on, causing over ten deaths, floods, landslides, extensive black-outs and almost a billion dollar agricultural losses. Last Saturday, on the day before the Moon Festival, the hash run was in Hsitch. The typhoon with heavy rain and winds continued from the previous night without showing any sign of weakening. Of course, the hash run was still on as Taipei Hash is famous for never ever cancelling a hash run on account of any adverse weather conditions or catastrophe. Even under the difficult and extremely dangerous conditions, around one hundred diehards turned up for the run. The start was from a very familiar restaurant from where we have had several runs in the past. The roaring wind and torrential rain kept all the hashers safe inside. No pre-run exercises. The hares left on time, trying to mark the trail with shredded papers. Water, at least ankle deep, was flowing in all directions that the paper marks were swept away almost immediately. The rest of the hashers, waiting for the signal to walk/run from the G.M. were surprised to see the hares back in less than fifteen minutes, both drenched in their raincoats. We presumed that they would have already pre-marked the rest of the run. We tried to follow the trail, from the slight traces of paper that had escaped the flood. We managed to run along a road going up, turned right and went up a small creek, criss-crossing the muddy stream of water that was rushing down from the top. In less than five minutes, we were up on a tarmac road. We saw a couple of marks and rush down the road. A left turn followed, and in couple of minutes, we were back at the start. It was a fifteen minutes run for a slow runner like me. And I enjoyed it. And so, I had no hesitation to vote this run as the best run of the year. Some others who wanted some exercise, repeated the trail three or four times, or just ran along the road through which we had driven up for the run. The storm was still howling, the trees and plants were shaking like the old Michael Jackson, the heavens still kept on coming down and we kept busy inside the restaurant drinking, eating and socializing! What a day. And the down downs went on, perhaps until the next morning! Who knows!! Around 5pm, 'Mosquito' left for home to celebrate Moon Festival with a B-B-Q together with his family., and reluctantly I accompanied him for a lift back. I heard the next day that the restaurant offered a nice dinner for those who stayed back!
